Research Partnership Information

User interaction on this web site is also used as part of a research study about the persuasive effects of non-governmental organizations. This study is conducted by Drew Dimmery, Department of Politics, Faculty of Arts & Science, New York University, as a part of his Doctoral dissertation. His faculty sponsor is Professor Joshua Tucker, Department of Politics, Faculty of Arts & Science, New York University.

No statement on associated webpages should be taken as the position of New York University or the researchers listed above. All thoughts and opinions reflect only those of New Jersey United for Marijuana Reform. All content has been written and conceived of solely by New Jersey United for Marijuana Reform.

In the course of this study, certain elements of the web site have been randomly altered, and your behavior has been observed anonymously. No personal identifiable information will be collected or published.

There are no known risks associated with your participation in this research beyond those of everyday life. Although you will receive no direct benefits, this research may help the investigator understand the persuasive effects of non-governmental organizations.

Confidentiality of your research records will be strictly maintained by anonymizing all user information as the data is collected.

Participation in this study is voluntary. You may refuse to participate or withdraw at anytime without penalty.
